

We have many examples of china from Auchindrain and it seems they were very fond of flowers and plants on their crockery. Have a look.

Why don't you design your own tea set using flowers you know? You could draw them or even stick them on to an outline picture. Why not ask if you can use some from your garden?

Here are some of the flowers that grow in Auchindrain, to give you some ideas to start with.

